Hello, Everybody!

Greetings—Gates, won't you come in. . . . Let's get acquainted right away. . . . You've already seen me on the title page. . . . My name is "Hi Parker". . . . I'm really just one of you. . . . I'm supposed to take you on a little tour of our school. . . . Say, I'll get some of my friends to come along and talk to you. . . . They'll tell you what they do here and why they like Hyde Park. . . . Yes, I know that you'll be thoroughly acquainted afterwards. . . . These excellent friendships are not just Entre Nous (between ourselves). . . . They are for everybody. . . . We've tried to make everything as comfortable as possible and you won't have to worry about getting lost . . . because all you have to do is ask one of my friends and they'll show you the way again. . . . Come right along. . . . This way please. . . . First on our program is . . . . .

Dear Dad, you
 I hope to meet

DEDICATION

Hello again . . . I wonder if you'd be willing to meet a really swell person. . . . I feel sure that you would. . . . Okay, then may I present to you Mr. Archibald Whittier Smalley. . . . Think you've seen him before? That's right, he's your assistant principal. . . . He plans all the programs, pacifies your parents when something goes wrong, . . . and also finds out just why you weren't in class the other day. . . . He is the one that really makes our school go "round" the way it does.

Say, though, maybe you really don't know him the way I do?? I think I'll let you in on a little sumpin'. . . . He must have a secret desire to be a dancing teacher . . . yes . . . 'cause he really loves to dance. . . . Bet you didn't know that! . . . Did you know, too (while I'm at it) . . . that he takes little walks . . . why he just strolls downtown and back. . . . Think of that! Why some of you big, husky lettermen couldn't do that! . . . I, myself, couldn't even do it. . . . Well . . . as for other hobbies. . . . Did you ever see that dreamy look in his eyes when he gazes out of the window? . . . He is just dating that little yellow Forsythia bush. Last year, she was out a little earlier. . . . Then, too, if you've ever seen him with his eyes piercing the pages of a book, you'll know that he's back with the Romans trying to find the derivations of certain words. . . . If you can ever corner him in the corridor some time, you'll find that his children have brought him up very carefully . . . yes, he understands youth. . . . He may even explain to you how to square a number by algebra, as he did for me. . . . Sure he really is a swell person—is our grand little Atlas of the school. . . . I guess you realize it now. . . . And that's the reason that the Aitchpe Staff is dedicating this year's edition to him. . . . It's a wonderful idea . . . right? . . .

IN MEMORIAM

An appreciation of the beauty of music which Oscar E. Robinson gave many of the Hyde Park students is a living memorial. His keen interest in people, his careful direction of the choruses, and his high standards of operettas gave Hyde Park its splendid musical reputation.

Bertha L. Farnam was a quiet, unassuming person who had a wide knowledge of all scientific subjects. As a teacher she will be remembered for her spritely sense of humor and her willingness to help everyone.

Say!...Look here....Have you met that teacher? Don't you long for an introduction? Sure, come on, here's your chance to meet all the Faculty... They really are a grand lot—all so human and delightful! This one you see talking is so much fun! She sponsors a club. And the one we just saw is an inspiration to any student! The whole school just seems to flock to her classes.... Oh, I suppose we could go on, you and I...shaking hands and meeting delightful personalities... But then, you know how it is, always something to do around this school... Honestly, don't you think we have the best teachers in the whole world—almost the whole world anyway!

In Charge of the Branch

Guiding the Hyde Park ship of state since 1933 is our principal Mr. Joseph Gonnely. He accomplishes this with insight, understanding, and justice. No question is too trivial for his careful study. Second in command is Mr. Archibald Smalley who tactfully supervises the administrative duties of our school. The third is Mr. Ira Van Hise who directs a world of his own, the organization of the Branch. The crew backing up this trimvirate consists of student advisors. Miss Mary Robb and Mr. Lloyd Rohrke guide the Freshman class, while Sophomores find Mrs. Lucille Priddy and Mr. Bernard Broek ready to give counsel.

Hello, dear How's everything? . . . Isn't Hyde Park wonderful? Aren't the kids that go here swell? Certain ones especially . . . Boy, will I be glad when I'm a senior. . . . Why? Look at all the things that I can do then. . . . Well, let's see. First, I could be my class president. . . . Oh-h-h, do you really think so? Then I'm going to be valedictorian no less And last, but not least, I'm going to be an all-around kid. . . . Oh, thanks. . . . But the best part about Hyde Park is that every class has its own special affairs which are equally grand!

ONLY A VESTIGE OF OUR BIG SNOW

Yep . . . that's a cinch, that is—for Seniors like us at least. We can do most anything now, 'cause we're out of high school. Ah yes, so it is only the first step in our lives. But we've climbed it, . . . and are we proud????? YOU BET! There's one thing that we have in abundance—-and that's energy. The initiative is a little harder to keep, but we use what we have and we DO get along!

Abstract: The purpose of this study was to determine if there were differences in the prevalence of risk factors for coronary artery disease between two groups of men who had been exposed to asbestos. One group consisted of 60 men who had worked in an asbestos vermiculite mine in Quebec, Canada, and the other group consisted of 60 men who had never worked in an asbestos mine. The prevalence of risk factors for coronary artery disease was determined by means of a questionnaire and physical examination. The results showed that the prevalence of risk factors for coronary artery disease was significantly higher in the group of men who had worked in an asbestos mine than in the group of men who had never worked in an asbestos mine.

JULIAN YOUNG
Forum: C I American

Today I am a letterman!

Going up-p-p? Third floor, please. . . . Ah . . . I'm free at last from the heckling and teasing that lower classmen receive. . . . What a feeling! . . . Ever had it? . . . Now to take advantage of all the privileges that belong to upper classmen! Why I'll even be able to tease the freshies and sophs myself! Besides that I'll have a chance to get on many other activities now . . . such as Honor societies and publications . . . and many others. . . . Just look at me. . . . I'm really lucky!

Gee . . . I feel different! My folks say that I'm comin' up in the world! I know more things . . . and more people—I like some of them a great “hearty” lot, and a lot of them a little. Anyhow . . . now that I'm a sophomore, there are some things that I don't have to do. No more “suit cases” . . . or overshoes . . . or green appearances—but pressed suits, frilly blouses and tinges of pink.

A black and white photograph of a large group of young men, likely a sports team, posed in three rows. The front row is kneeling, the middle row is standing, and the back row is also standing. They are all wearing dark, possibly athletic, clothing.

Hello . . . I look very pretty, don't you think? Of course, I don't wear this costume for all the time. Most always I haul my books around in a satchel . . . and I always carry my lunch!!! And when it rains I must wear my rubbers. . . . Gee whiz, but I hate 'em! Some day I'll come to school, and I'll come without a satchel, . . . without my rubbers, . . . and with dignity!!

Hold it Mr. President! Here I come! Now where did I put my notes. . . . Oh, yes, . . . ahem. . . . Sigma had a large gathering Wednesday in the Social room. . . . Three little R.O.T.C.'s were caught without whistles Friday. . . . Weekly made All-American! . . . Aitchpe goes to press at four o'clock. . . . Music organizations are happily vocalizing every day in preparation for the music festival. . . .

How I keep track of all the organizations and activities in this bustling school is a deep secret, but I do. . . . If you want to know more. . . .

As an excellent recipe requires the very best ingredients, a really good team needs experienced players and a strong fighting spirit. Though our team just broke even in the winning, tying, and losing of games, we were proud to have that

Park. The boys were not beaten badly in any game by more than two touch downs. The school rejoiced enthusiastically over our final game, which we won from our ancient rival, Englewood High School, by the marvelous score of 20 to 0. The great number of people who packed to this game demonstrated that the game would end without a pushover. Also as thrilling was our game with the highly-rated Tilden team where we held them to a standstill

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

See that round thing trying to fall into what resembles a wastepaper basket with no bottom. That's a basketball. All those girlyies in green shorts are on the Girls' Basketball team. They are all clustered around the ball trying to get it away from each other. Here, here, that looks like an unfair game, and it couldn't be, with such fair and square players as Hyde Park girls on the teams. What's more, it's one of the most popular of girls' sports around here, and, after all, it's no fun to take these sports too seriously. What is the use of crashing in tooth and nail just because of a little round ball? Well, not so little, but round. But that's beside the point now because there were some snappy teams this year, as well as many very exciting games. To add human interest, they were all given clever names, such as "Panda," (the animal is a bear at our own Brookfield Zoo), and "Speedsters." They had fun during practice, too. Here, Basketball is Queen!

GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL

The referee raises the whistle to her lips and emits a long, shrill blast. The server deliberates a few minutes to judge her distance. Twenty pairs of blue serge bloomers stand at attention. Hey, wait a minute! This is 1939, and the Girls' Volleyball teams have just finished a series of rip-roaring games that would have made Diana blush from shame. Said Greek goddess didn't have anything on the Hyde Park Amazons of the Volleyball Team. We'll admit that girls of ancient Athens did toss balls energetically on the hills near the temples, but if they had been faced with a fast quick game of the modern category, chances are that there would be no graceful statues to decorate museums. It seems a shame that so many centuries passed before ingenious sportsmen invented such a grand game like Volleyball. The girls of Hyde Park use it to good advantage, too. The teams play the fastest games you ever saw! And the Seniors won this year!

GIRLS' BASEBALL

Whe-e-e! Look at that ball travel. The G.A.A. girls certainly know the tricks of the diamond. Look at that pitcher! Who do you think would have guessed that a bunch of innocent-looking gazelles could be organized into one of the best ball teams in the world? Yes, thought you'd guess—the Girls' Baseball Team. Well, maybe it's not the best in the world, but it comes very close to the female top-notchers. Witness a game sometime after school, and you'll trust the veracity of that statement. In spring weather, the girls "jump in" their little green monkey suits and race out to a nearby lot. Here they really prove that the so-called weaker sex is not so inferior to those hardy males as is generally supposed.

Every girl on the Girls' Baseball Team stands for fair play. This trait is very essential to the health of the girls for it eliminates many a massacre and periods of hard feeling among them.

GIRLS' FIELD HOCKEY

Yonder in Jackson Park there is a big field. In this field are two goal posts, and several lines, one in the middle and several running along the sides. These, my children, make up the hockey field. Every afternoon, girls go out there and play hockey. They compose the Hyde Park Girls' Field Hockey Team. They swing their sticks around and appear rather fierce although they're really trying persistently to hit a little white ball between the two goal posts.

Enough of this childish prattle. We've really got a grand hockey team, although it was rather "latish" in getting started this year. It seems that the season wasn't long enough to get up a team (in the true sense of the word) but, wait and see what happens next year. Next year, when they do not have to start from scratch, the G.A.A. will organize a real team. They are bound to be successful! Hyde Park, give them your support!

G. A. A. POINT

It was a laurel wreath placed upon the brow that was the highest honor which anyone could receive in olden times. A big "H.P." placed on the chest is a high honor in 1939, at the Hyde Park High School, anyway. A big monogram on a white sweater signifies a great deal more than merely athletic prowess alone. A girl who is fortunate enough to have acquired one of these for her wardrobe should be an example of glowing health.

If you would consider the many requirements that must be fulfilled before a person merits a set of letters, you would then know why the girls who are wearing them seem so very happy. These "lucky" girls have certainly accomplished something really worthwhile. Let us find out what a set of letters truly mean. In the first place, charts must be obeyed; and the items on them checked. Exercise and plenty of it is another important requisite. Incidentally, that goes for tooth-brushing, too. "See your dentist once a year and obtain a doctor's certificate."

However, these aren't the only requirements that must be fulfilled. Posture and the beginners' swimming tests must be passed. These tests are not so easy, either. To pass a posture test, one must be able to perform a variety of fancy exercises. For example: One must be able to bend forward and keep her back straight at the same time. The swimming test is no "snap." In order to pass this test, one must forget how to swim as an ancient octopus did (all arms and legs) and learn the art of graceful "mermaid" swimming.

Now 'Em Down

Besides having successfully completed these feats mentioned above, she must also have participated in games, individual and team. These games, incidentally, are basketball, badminton, ping pong, volleyball, and many others. These games, as you probably know, are rather risky. If you ever notice some pairs of twisted limbs balancing precariously on stunt bars, you may be sure that their owner is patiently gaining the points that will make her eligible for the much desired letters.

Now all these accomplishments should add up to the necessary 1000 points. After the coveted letters are finally earned, can you wonder that their new owners are very proud of themselves? So you see, point winning is quite a job!

TRACK

Boys that run because they enjoy it and not solely because they are being chased, belong to our Track Teams.

All the boys of both the Senior and Junior Track teams enjoy this sport as is evidenced by their many victories. With their heads high and raring to be on their way, our boys entered the indoor city meet. The Senior tracksters have proved their worth in triumphs. Don Boyes made third place in both the high jumps and the high hurdles. Hyde Park's honor was shared by Jack Diehl, who reached fourth place in low hurdles. Jack Thompson used his legs and made fifth place in the low hurdles. We may expect even greater things from next year's Seniors, as there are many promising Junior track stars who will then be eligible for the Senior team.

Among the promising Juniors is the hurdler — Green. Jack Epstein, present member of the Junior Track Team and a 660 yardsman, will also prove an asset to the team. At the indoor city meet, Dan Fogle upheld Junior traditions and made fourth in the triple broad jump, and took the honors for our Hyde Park.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Intramural sports, better known as inter-class competition, covers basketball, bowling, boxing, and wrestling.

The basketball tournament rolled away to a good take-off. Scores of the tourney, which was discontinued, were shavingly close. Many of the players will be good basketball material. All of them deserve a "Rah! Rah! Freshie!" The branch boys' tournament began with a bang—a champion division was chosen and a championship game was played at the main. In all probability the next four years will develop a "right nice bunch o' players" for the regular Junior and Senior teams of the Hyde Park of future semesters.

Hear ye! Hear ye! all "tin pinners" viewing with envy those major letters! The most enjoyable way to win the coveted letters is by joining the bowling team. All winter the bowlers have hibernated weekly at the Vista Bowling Alleys. The best five-man team enters into the inter-school competition and aims for 1st, 2nd, or 3rd place in the city. The reward—to every good bowler—major letters.

All these arts plus the pugilistic arts of boxing and wrestling are carried on in the boys' private gym.

GOLF

As all of the “birdies” and “eagles” begin to come out, and the first blades of grass come through, almost the first word you hear is the popular “fore.” Also, out there with the best of them are Ettlinger, Ruekburg, Boas, and Kanene, led by Capt. Colen. Of course the sectional championship will be ours this year, just as it was last, because we have the same fellows in there “pitching.” But don’t be at all surprised if some “up to par” member of the golf team says they’ll come up the fairway to the championship!

TENNIS

Whizz, wham wherr—over,
Whiz back wham, wham over and back—and so on!

To the Hyde Park Tennis Team, this is all natural phenomena. Having arrived at the successful stage, these “tennis-five” have put their fine powers into good use at the local, city, and state tournaments. Captain Eugene Belson, and the second man in the Hyde Park line-up, Frank Lazarus, have exhibited their technique in these contests. Charles Keeling, Dick Straus, and Miles Anderson are “champs,” too!

FENCING

The clash of swords, the gleam of blades in the fire-light, and we are in the midst of a fierce battle with the members of the Hyde Park fencing team! Finally the sharp word "touche" is heard, brings the duel to a close, and congratulations are in order. For this time, the winner of the Kraft Social Meet is our own Sir Hugo Heyns of a proud school! Led by their efficient co-captains, Heyns and Peters, and inspired much also by Mr. Hasan, other "competitors of the sword" fight the way to a speedy victory.

CHESS

The most important factor in playing Chess is an alert brain, for this game is strictly scientific. The team of five men and their substitutes are arranged according to their skill in boards, that is, first board, second board on up to five boards.

First and second boards are played by Earl Sherman and Murry Wax. Third board man is Robert Barnes, and fourth board man is Robert Dunderdale. Players outstanding on the team are Efrem Ostrow, Otto Trippel, and Jack Rabin. Success is yours!

WRESTLING

Whiff! Bam! Pow!

No, this isn't a riot—it is only the Wrestling Team practicing again. The team was formed this year by our Harold Goodman, a wrestling enthusiast. These wrestlers are not so green as one might suppose for the team defeated Mount Carmel in one of the two wrestling meets held this season!

These wrestlers receive no awards such as letters or numerals for their efforts, but wrestle just for the fun of it. Come on, Hyde Park, join this group and push our school to victory!

SOCCER

Persevering is the word for H.P.'s Soccer Team. And why? Well, it crashed to victory after it had suffered a few defeats. But what's a paltry defeat in the life of our Soccer Team? After we lost to the teams of Kelly, Schurz, and Lane, they turned to blank Manley by a score of 2 to 1. The people were just in a frenzy as the clinching score was made in the last few minutes. The same thing happened when Hyde Park beat Von Steuben 3 to 2. The Soccer coach, Henry Schultz, says, however, that next year we'll show 'em!

SWIMMING

Splash! A quick member of our Swimming Team is racing through the water. With his mighty backstroke he reaches the end of the pool to place for Hyde Park in the fall city meet. Who is he? Alden Boor is the victorious swimmer!

Bill Baugher, 100 and 220-yard veteran, is again captain of the team. Because we had no pool most of the season, we held no dual meets and weren't able to form a good team. However, an exhibition was held for the open house here. The next year's team has unusual promise with the aid of George West.

GIRLS' SWIMMING

With a few clean-cut strokes a Hyde Parker is saved from "certain death in the Natatorium". For that's their business, you know! Someday these lassies are going to be great life savers. On the Girls' Swimming Team one is taught how not to end up, down in Davy Jones' Locker. Miss Alice Rentz is certainly far from being all wet however. Due to her faithful enterprise, an admirable team has been organized. They say you don't have to be super to learn how to life-save, but these mermaids do know their stuff on the surf!

BASEBALL

It's a hit! What's a hit?—Why, our Baseball Team. We cheer until the rafters are ringing for them. Not only have they hit hits, but they certainly know how to handle hits and homers. As the umpire calls "Play Ball," our team goes right to town and really plays. The Captain of this year's team is Boyd Bartley. Maybe you don't think that we're proud of the team!

They win like veterans and lose like generals. An excellent example of such a fine losing spirit was demonstrated at a practice game with Calumet where we lost 8 to 6. However, with more work-outs and more coaching by Heine Schultz we predict the loss of very few other games.

it is not amazing that every meeting or special program, displaying "E" and "S" talent, has provided real enjoyment and relaxation for the "Excellent" and "Superior" scholars of Hyde Park. Besides the regular Sigma meetings and entertainments, a party was given this semester for freshmen from both the Hyde Park Main and the H.P. Branch. This manner of introducing the "frosh" to each other, and to the Sigma Society also, is a welcomed "annex" to the Sigma Platform. This type of Sigma party, if continued, is destined to establish a warm feeling of friendship in the school. It also gives the students a colorful picture of Hyde Park's Honor Society. The H.P. faculty has directed the group in strains of laughter by presenting for them a faculty show of an ingenious type. Students have found it quite natural to climb the “extra mile” with teachers such as these to broaden the paths. The Trail Blazer of Sigma Epsilon is Miss Beulah Shoesmith. ## PYTHAGOREANS

As the shortest distance between two points is a straight line, so it holds true that the quickest way from high grades in "Math" to recognition in the Mathematics Field is by way of Pythagoreans. Well, the members of the Senior English Honor seem to know their field of Literature, and who wouldn't with an E average in English and Miss Rubetta Biggs for inspiration! Probably, they won't be shoveled into the cool tombs without some honor!

JUNIOR ENGLISH HONOR

"Oh, what a mysterious city—Camelot—a fairy city with a fairy king!"

Such were the utterings of Gareth and his companions as they were riding towards it. This city of mist was clear to the eyes of the Junior English Honor students for it was vividly portrayed in "Idylls of the King." Miss Elizabeth Buchanan is sponsor.

Pro Latin. Why? Because the Latin Myths and ancient Roman events are so fascinating that these Junior "Aristocrats" are all for Latin. Class: Euclidean.

Sponsor: Mrs. Hildur W. Lundquist

Subject: Honor Mathematics.

Such might be the printing on the glass door of the imaginary office of Euclidean, Junior Mathematics Honor Class.

What goes on behind this translucent glass door with the Euclidean, and their geometric-algebraic minded sponsor, Mrs. Lundquist, is now about to be revealed.

All third year students who maintained an "E" average in their previous two years of mathematics are eligible for membership in this organization.

Then, too, they study the lives of the famous mathematicians and practice solving problems that these persons have developed. There really are not any mathematical puzzles that our clever Euclidean can't easily solve. And of course these gallant followers of that accurate mathematician Euclid are ever looking forward with greatest anticipation to solving the problems of Pythagoras in their Senior year.

So we say "more power to you," who energetically brush the cobwebs from your brains, and dig deeply into the enticing secrets of mathematics. And so they march bravely forward led by their wise and helpful Mrs. Lundquist, who strives to open the way for more students to the "Math" World.

CHEMISTRY HONOR

Just as up is fashion's decree for the hair, up and coming is the motto of Chemistry Honor. They aren't blown up, but rise in the chemistry scholarship field with wings of study.

Imagine the output of a classroom of E and S students! No experiment is too, too.....; a puzzling theory is no nightmare, but a day dream to this problem-coping chemistry group. They delve deeply into the depths of more advanced chemistry and always seem to come out unharmed. For those who are ignorant of this study, we would suggest that you get a dictionary while visiting this honor class. The participants don't need one as jovial Mr. Glen Bute is their chief interpreter between text book and honor student. Outside reports are given on subjects that chemists have just newly discovered. Sometimes they set up apparatus so that these subjects will not be so difficult to understand. Often movies with chemistry for a theme are shown for their benefit. If you are not informed as to the technique of experimentation, ask the boy on your right and he will carefully explain all the details to you.

If you think you're smart because you know that  $H_2O$  is water, and sugar is something else, just converse with a Chem Honor student and then.....!

Up, up, up, they go....until they reach the dream cloud—a scholarship, and grasp it. Then for much more experimentation and perhaps the famous stellar Nobel Prize!

History à la Mr. Walter J. Hipple means History made interesting! Here, future historians can delve into the events of the past decades and compare them with those which are taking place today. Being an honor society, members must have attained high marks in History, but isn't it worth it to be able to join in these discussions?

SPANISH HONOR

"Buenos dias!" Is it Latin? Is it French? Nope! Could it be?—Might it be? Yes, it is Spanish! Oh, this must be Spanish Honor. Only the high-grade student can belong here so we'll need an interpreter. The sponsor? Why only Miss Harriet Messelheiser could have such an enthusiastic group of señors y señoritas!

I like to draw and at the same time I can make drawings for the publications and posters for other organizations. . . . Of course, I wouldn't want to be "preachy", . . . but I think that every student should help the school at some time during his high school career . . . besides if they don't . . . they really can't begin to realize all the fun that they're missing. . . . ## STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Bang, bang! There goes a poster up in the halls, stamped and approved by Student Government. Hey, is this the Lost and Found? Yes, lost by a pupil and found by another. Miss Ruth Stoke keeps all committees from being lost!

The pounding of an imaginary gavel reminds us that officers can not hold too many other offices, without coming up against the gentle opposition of Student Government. All prospective officers are taken care of by the Election Commission. Another committee (Extra-Curricular) checks on clubs and honor organizations. Beside being judicial, there's a committee (Welfare Committee) that sponsors Citizenship Week, and the "Learn to Dance Club."

MONITORS 3: Row 3—R. Wolton, W. Cook, B. P. S. Smerling, D. Norton, G. Scott, M. Euhanks, H. Salzman, J. Belger, S. Orlov, J. Mastrofsky, K. Simon, R. Barker, H. Giblichman. Row 2—Newman, J. MONITORS 4: Row 3—F. Anderson, I. Fultz, I. C. S. R. Stonack, R. Herman, V. Pearce, D. Rapp. Row 2—G. Lee, E. Levy, P. Hoffman, J. Intel, M. Olech, C. Grace, L. Lacy, A. Winer. Row 1—R. Neufeld, S. Klein, R. Huck, I. Johns, E. Weber, I. Dell, C. Mehr, C. Scheff able to look a Monitor in the eye and smile at him.

You must already realize that hall guards are placed at the various important points in the building during all the periods with exception to division. For all the periods there is a head and an assistant head monitor whose job is to supervise the coordination of these posts (that is, whether the monitors are doing their jobs carefully).

The new season passes are not the old metal framed yellow ones, but new passes with the word "annual" printed on them. Also the new regular passes are made with a space for your exact destination. No trying to beat around the "mulberry bush" here! These folks are on their job the minute after the tardy bell has rung and they'll really get you if you don't watch out! Do you truly want to "win" Monitors? If so, just remember the rules above and also the regulations for the monitors themselves so that you won't require them to arrest you! Life will be easy and you'll have many new friends too!

Oh yes, my cherubs, you will want to hear about influencing M.P.'s. If you just abide by all the former suggestions, you will have the same results. That finishes all the Do's and Don'ts—know the ropes now?

Do you think you've been polite to these civic-minded people? They don't receive any credit for their service, only points toward a civic letter.

If you have not yet won a monitor or influenced an M.P., why not ask Mr. Frank Williamson!

DEWEY LIBRARY CLUB

A Hyde Parker contemplating librarianship must know several things—courtesy, with or without the smile, dependability, and last but not least efficiency to the nth degree. As for the pages, they must learn that books are classified by subject and author. Head-librarian? Miss Alice Van Hattem has proved her weight in knowledge!

OFFICE HELP

"Yea, verily, what would we do if we did not have our faithful flunkies!" is the very frequent exclamation of an office helper. The girls are the official putter-aways of the program cards and errand-girls. This is good training for future work of this type, and then they will enter business with a good background.

OFFICE HELP: Row 3—J. Buck, R. Klier, S. Fienberg, M. Atwood, I. Hymen, H. Luria, E. Jackson, D. Houghton, A. Winer, L. Pepper, W. Swan. Row 2—E. Johnson, R. Berliner, G. Grev, V. Thorkelson, S. ## PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

The Hyde Park Parent-Teacher Association equals the hard working mothers and teachers of all the hard working students at Hyde Park. Hard working—at least in the sense of furthering any improvements in our school as school buildings or school activities! Through the members of this organization, Hyde Park's new Agnes Stuart Social Room has been furnished with the "plush and drapery" of modern times.

The meetings of this group are usually of the educational type. Besides discussing business, the teachers and parents are often favored with choral or instrumental groups, and, whenever possible, they invite famous speakers in different fields to speak for them.

These people have aided many students to remain in Hyde Park by giving them scholarships of school supplies, carfare, and clothing. Four Hyde Park mothers work in our Lunch Room daily, and because of this, the Board of Education pays the P.-T. A. a small sum of money each month. With this money they help to pay for the student aid or the scholarships.

For all the miraculous accomplishments which the P.-T. A. has made, they could never be fully paid back. Keeping students in school, and well-provided for, is not at all an extremely easy task. The president of the group, Mrs. Milton L. Wiener, should be sincerely thanked for the simply marvelous achievements which the P.-T. A., under her guidance, has been really able to accomplish for Hyde Park.

VARSITY MOTHERS: Row 2 Mrs. R. Schalk, Mrs. M. Prentiss, Mrs. L. B. Donkle, Mrs. I. Storm. Row 1—Mrs. M. Thompson, Mrs. J. O. Bates, Mrs. B. Epstein, Mrs. P. Rich

VARSITY MOTHERS

"Cheer for old Hyde Park!"

"Hyde Park will win!"

Sounds good? Yes! But a team can't be good unless somebody takes the responsibility for collecting the pennies which assure the boys of needed equipment. This is where the Varsity Mothers come to the rescue. Certainly "a boy's best friend" is his mom.

The mothers give card parties and all other kinds of benefits to supply this needed equipment. This year the Varsity Mothers have been particularly interested in helping out the Social Room. Their own president, Mrs. J. Bates, was the designer, and the room certainly turned out a beautiful success. The furnishings leave room for additions which will be a help to the classes of future years, because they can feel that they have given a part of the room also. This is just a tiny example of their resourcefulness.

The Athletic Dance is sponsored by the Varsity Mothers. At this time the deserving sons receive their major or minor letter awards. The mothers are cheerful chaperons for their sons and therefore a good time is guaranteed.

Of course they don't fail to admit that they have a good time doing this for their particularly athletically-minded sons. They like to see their sons fight to the finish. So don't be too surprised to find some of these mothers out sitting on the grandstand shouting for our football or any other team. Perhaps the cheer will be . . . "Our team is red hot!"

STAGE FORCE: Row 2—P. Falkens, G. Romstedt (Mgr.), W. Scott, R. Gore. Row 1—M. Gruson, M. Mathews (Ass't. Mgr.), W. Barnhart.

STAGE FORCE

As indispensable as a safety pin, is our Stage Force to school's plays and skits. By handling the technical operations such as lighting, "mikes" and curtains, they fasten loose ends to make a stage that can endure any emergency (sounds just like the duty of a safety pin?). When necessary, Miss Edith Hardy uses needle and thread.

DOWNTOWN SHOPPING NEWS

You open your back door and whee! A neatly rolled-up Downtown Shopping News falls at your feet. You'll then see that the deliverer is a young man who well deserves the bonus he gets after four months of service. Perhaps a scholarship will come to him if he succeeds here and in school. What Ho! Maybe even new worlds to conquer!

SHOPPING NEWS: Row 3—B. Titus, E. Dunmore, J. Bolger, G. Gough, B. Saxton, R. Halaska, J. Green, F. Fish. Row 2—R. Lalson, J. Wells, J. Crimp, T. Hall, R. Shackleton, B. Robins, C. Webb. Row 1—D. Thomas, W. Day, C. Ise, A. Halaska, T. Reilly, H. Robinson, B. Doskin.

ORCHESTRA PARENTS CLUB: Row 2—Mrs. J. Shapiro, Mrs. F. E. Dailey, Mrs. E. Kahn, Mrs. M. H. Winnett, Mrs. Frank L. Tullis, Mrs. I. Feldschreiber. Row 1—Mrs. W. Schroeder (Cor. Sec.), Mrs. H. Runkel (Pres.), Mrs. F. O. Phillips (Treas.), Mrs. L. E. Tompkins (Rec. Sec.).

ORCHESTRA PARENTS CLUB

The Orchestra Parents Club is for the parents of the younger generation of musicians. The mothers have raised funds for the purchasing and repairing of instruments used by the Junior and Senior Orchestras. The orchestras show their appreciation by presenting special programs of solo and symphony numbers in which the students play.

HYDE PARK PENS

Clear the way! Here comes the Pen Pusher's Brigade! Pen-pushing is one thing and producing an excellent magazine is another, but it is done successfully by Miss Marguerite Byrne's Creative Writing Class. The magazine is called the "Hyde Park Pens"; it is filled with every type of writing—criticized, and published by them!

H. P. PENS: Row 3—W. Leonard (Art Ed.), N. Truitt, B. Bezark, A. Z. and B. Nelson (Poetry Ed.), E. McElhane. Row 2—J. Mercer, R. Frankin (Fict. Ed.), F. Fonger, D. Homer, D. Haney, R. Wirpel, D. Werthman (Poetry Asst. Ed.). Row 1—L. Schwartz, J. Leonard (Art Ed.), Miss Byrne, M. McCaffrey (Short Story Ed.), J. Schoff (Bus. Mgr.), D. S. Ricard (Managing Ed.).

BOOSTERS

Atlas didn't find the world heavy, and neither is the Boosters' task of boosting school activities burdensome to them, because Mrs. Grace H. Edgar lightens their load with her tireless enthusiasm. They have solved the problem of collecting food for Christmas baskets and other such projects. This is a real worth-while institution!

CLEAN-UP COMMITTEE

Toss me the soap! And haul out the mops! Here is the Clean-Up Committee! These are the cries that arise everywhere when spring comes to Hyde Park. And so our cheerful "cleaner-uppers", led by the equally jovial Miss Evelyn Phelan, start merrily on the road to Cleanliness. 'Course our committee's supreme moment is at the road's end!

CLEAN-UP COMMITTEE: Row 3—C. Grace, E. Henkel, A. Elmer, J. Clayke, R. Miller (Chairman), A. Erickson, R. Theard, B. Simon, Row 2—D. Troupe, L. Hamilton, C. Meyer, M. Kaner, V. Hirst, M. Us? . . . Well, we're just boosters around Hyde Park. We're very, very polite people . . . and we wish—but whose talkin' about us. Anyway? We were talking about hair-bows, and lollipops, and frolics, and plays, and twins, and . . . uh, puff, puff. These things really take shape under the brilliant leadership of a group of Juniors and Seniors. We have parties with the money earned. The success of these parties has always depended upon us, and we are satisfied with the results.

SENIOR GIRLS

Howdy, partner! Welcome to Senior-Girls-Land, that great metropolis for Senior Girls. Why sure, I'll show you around our little town — glad to — Yes, we all know that Senior Girls is not a mythical town but a sure-enough Hyde Park Club. We will admit though, that it would make a right jolly town with its fine membership, highly serviceable accomplishments; not to mention the excellent sponsoring of Miss Rubetta Biggs plus Miss Eva B. Hensen who could, without a doubt, "fill the bill" as two lively mayors.

The ever-active Senior Girls might even have "hair-bow-tree-raising" the important occupation of Senior-Girls-Land.

Saviet.

Freshie Frolic is the main outlying suburb with "The Ideal Freshie Girl" as lesser mayor. The Freshies are entertained every semester by the older girls who feed them lavishly on Lollypops and Dixie cups. We may rest assured that the Senior Girls really put their best foot forward, for they use this occasion to show the newcomers just what Hyde Park has to offer in the way of "A-number-one" entertainment along the lines of singers, tapdancers, and dramatists. The gentle freshies gaily skip home, really satisfied after a perfect afternoon.

Yes, life wouldn't be life without the Senior Girls. In sport, sociability, and sophistication, they typify Hyde Park's exuberant spirit.

JUNIOR GIRLS 1: Row 3—R. Alsberg, H. Biederman, E. Biederman, E. Grawoig, A. Goldberg, E. Levy, A. Elmer, M. Hamilton, C. Grace, M. Alfredson, J. Dell, A. Deffler, Row 2—J. Seelig, L. Kotselas, E. ## JUNIOR GIRLS

Junior Girls' Society acts like a zipper and zips all Junior girls together in a spirit of companionship. Their meetings are full of fun as the talents of the members furnish ample entertainment. Jollity prevails as a rule at their gatherings, thus close friendships often arise.

If a visitor happened to see both Freshmen and Seniors munching lollipops, he might be much surprised. It is legal, however, for then it's Junior Lollipop Day! On one day in the year school spirit is sweetened up by the sale of these lollipops.

Junior girls are not tyrannically ruled, but they are ruled by the gracious and regal Miss Christine Fuchs.

SOPHOMORE GIRLS 1: Row 3—H. Preite, I. Davis, M. Davis, H. Bloomfield, M. Galtier, T. Flanders, M. Lievense, J. Crosby, J. Cohen, H. Baines, M. Leach, M. Gust, W. Forderber. Row 2—I. Koefoed, I. ## SOPHOMORE GIRLS

Let us follow the bunny-tag and as Alice in Wonderland, we should find a strange place. The bunny will lead us to the home of Sophomore Girls. Once a year the sale of these little bunnies stimulates a school spirit with the funds which benefit Hyde Park in many ways.

Fun is the keynote at these meetings where companionship is king. The school's celebrities often entertain them at times while different members of the group give a display of their amazing talents for the amusement of their fellow members at other times. Their favorite "member" is Miss Mary Frye who adds greatly to the joyous atmosphere of their meetings.

Senior Boys participate in Knight-work! Their pledge is the rescuing of freshman boys from loneliness and the bewilderment of a new experience. The Freshie Mixer aids the freshie to become acquainted with Hyde Park's activities. Mr. George Tucker, as jolly as King Cole himself, rules his court with the hand of fellowship.

Every spring—well—you know what happens! The Senior Boys give a very hilarious play, which generally is a comedy. This really puts a spotlight on their "knight-work" and brings out all sorts of talent. The pecunis that is received from this play is usually given to some very worthy cause such as our Christmas Basket Fund.

GERMAN CLUB

"Guten Tag!" One guess as to what we are to talk about. The German Club of course—one of Hyde Park's best-liked clubs. Mrs. Hulda Witte Randall is the main pillar of this super club in which the German language is spoken fluently. According to Mrs. Randall, the object of the German club is not only to make an outlet for speaking the language but rather to create social contacts between the students. Consequently, the club has made popular in Hyde Park the old German custom of the Kaffee Klatsch. After the business meeting and the social hour, a special housekeeping committee lets German wit flow freely as the dishes are washed.

TWINS CLUB: Row 3—V. Gawrych, L. Gawrych, J. Bouras, D. Bouras, M. Davis, J. Davis

TWINS' CLUB

Two by two they come, prancing and dancing, following their valiant Miss Veronica Whelan. These ten (or rather twenty) members of the Twins Club don their bifocals and begin their literature reading, using "Twins" as a subject. The purpose of the odd club shall be revealed! Here the Hyde Park twins tell of their "two-faced" lives!

PAN AMERICAN LEAGUE

The Pan American League is an organization that is interested in the relation of Latin American Republics to the U.S.A. To develop this spirit of friendliness and good will between these republics, these "Spanish" students study these countries from various aspects. Their sponsor, Mrs. Isolina Flores, is a native of Uruguay!

PAN AMERICAN CLUB: Row 3—J. Gross, L. Yang, M. Wallace, C. Podrofski, K. Hirsh, S. Seltzer, L. Strauss, M. Morris, W. Hargett, C. Hargett, E. Biederman, H. Biederman, J. Newart, Row 2—C. Scheff, M. You like my music! . . . Wonderful!! But I'm just one of a group of instrumentalists, you know . . . a . . . ah . . . admirers . . . you might say of Beethoven and Bach—and some day their competitors! And this group is one of the thousand and eleven special interest clubs offered to Hyde Park students. Several other “very attractive” groups are the brilliant songsters of the choral organizations and the romantic Juliettas of the stage. It was hard to make a choice between all these interesting “interest groups,” but now I'm progressing in the line of music—with the help of special interest clubs—and I like it!

A CAPPELLA

Concerts, programs, festivals, entertainments, radio broadcasts—this very full schedule has been successfully carried out by our A Cappella. Under the direction of Mrs. Josephine Lee, this choral group has sung many beautiful selections written by both old and more modern composers. Adding to the effect of the singing, the appearance of these choristers in their gorgeous blue robes present a striking picture.

Four of the boys of the choir have banded together to form The Hyde Park Male Quartet. They have performed on numerous assembly programs, and have been on the radio. Our choir seems to be able to touch any music lover!

GIRLS' CHORUS

Soaring to eminent heights warble the members of the Girls' Chorus. The girls have really gone far this year! They were rewarded for their work by the attainment of a very high-rating in the City-Wide Contest this winter. They were honored by being one of the choruses chosen to sing in the Spring Music Festival—an outstanding event of the year.

They wanted really more than recognition in music alone. They wanted people to know that they could think in more than just one channel. Through bake sales and other benefits they managed to collect enough money to purchase capes of beautiful royal blue satin. These capes certainly add to their physical prestige!

MALE CHORUS

Silence

Deep, profound silence . . . Miss Veronica Whelan's hand swings upward!

"Yassuh! Gonna walk all ovah God's Heaven, Heaven, Heaven."

The Male Chorus has just sung another negro spiritual. Applause breaks forth with a deafening volume; a bell rings cruelly and the babbling pupils return to their classes.

Yes, they ought to be good! After all, practicing two periods a day is enough to make any chorus like ours, be good. The whole chorus is divided into groups, which enables each individual to know his own part perfectly. And perfect it is, with Miss Whelan conducting!

MIXED CHORUS 1: Row 3—H. Bernstein, H. J. Lren, B. Lewin, I. Goodfriend, R. Stern, J. Kaplan, A. Aronson, J. Kershaw, D. Schlismann, J. Polacheck, C. Matson. Row 2—I. Fitzgerald, R. Santosky, M. Rollo, R. Leary, A. Abbott, Miss Churchill, J. Ryan, M. Miller, E. Goldstein, M. Hanks.

MIXED CHORUS

Mixed Chorus has just finished its third semester of "pianissimo," "expressissimo" and any other "issimo." Miss Flora Churchill, director of the chorus, should take pride in a really successful "mixture." These students spent much time and effort in learning and staging the concert version of the opera, "Martha." On other programs during school weeks, the "Fantasy on a Russian Folk Song" was sung by the choristers, and (just as fantasies are wont to do), filled the air with strange sensations.

With many lovely singable compositions, a good choir to sing them, and an excellent director to mix the two, Mixed Chorus blends together well!

AITCHPE TRIBE 1: Row 3—I. Bolger, B. Saxton, D. Storm, D. Schenck, F. Snyder, J. Neiman, R. Chatterton, P. Leopold. Row 2—A. Green, H. Goodman, S. Colen, B. Davis, L. Kalisky, H. Wolff, E. Austin, B. ## AITCHPE TRIBE

A major or minor letter plus a boy equals an Aitchpe Tribe member. Also a wonderful personality plus a boundless interest in boys plus an understanding nature stands for none other than Coach Elliott E. Hasan. The sum of the Aitchpe Tribe and their coach is a Boxing and Wrestling Show. Aiding the Varsity Mothers, they raised funds for our Social Room. Much team equipment is purchased through their efforts. They promote all he-man activities even such festive affairs as dances, hayrides, and roller skating parties. The Tribe really stands for "fun, frolic, and fella's". When the Tribe is called together, the Indians from all sport reservations meet.

G.A.A.

In order to be a letter girl, it is necessary that you are a G.A.A. girl; to belong to the Girl's Athletic Association, you can be anyone at all; to be anyone, you must be someone; to be someone, you must belong to G.A.A.

Points are points; when they total 1000, they are letters. Letters mean something to any girl! Goes to prove the worth of girls, and shows their equality with boys. But the real question of importance is "How can you get points?" Well, well, can you ride a bicycle in a straight line and for a number of hours? Can you hike without grumbling or blisters? Is tennis more than just a racquet with a hole? If you answer correctly, yes and no, to these questions, your G.A.A. quotient is one hundred percent. Keep up your chins, my gals, hang on for four semesters and your letters are in the bag. If your G.A.A. quotient was nil, Miss Margaret Karboski will help you so that at the end your I.Q. and F.Q. (Fun Quotient) shall be one hundred percent perfect.

G. A. A. 3: Row 3—E. Romonuk, S. Ravitch, B. Weiter, C. Richards, S. Strack. Row 2—E. Rahn, F. Taschler, C. Truax, M. Williams. Row 1—E. Swan, T. Strahl, J. Sivyer (Corr Sec'y.), J. Harper (V. Pres.), E. Suloway

G.A.L.

Right up to date—these G.A.L.'s! (the Girls' Association of Lettermen.) Look at them with those letters, "H" and "P", shining forth. They certainly have every Hyde Park girl in a state of jealousy, don't they? And do these girls have fun? The name of Miss Margaret Karboski who is here in place of Miss Fredericka Marston shows this!

CHICAGO TOUR CLUB

Ladies and Gentlemen, to our right we have the Tour Club. At the head of this group is Miss Sadie Friedlander, who does the counting of noses to see if any of the members have fallen in the fig newton mixture at the Cookie Factory. It will be odd if Hyde Park doesn't graduate some long necks and inquisitive noses after these trips.

GARDEN CLUB

"Miss Fuchs—Mrs. Hawkes.

O, will our garden grow?"

"I think it will, if we keep still.

And hope, and plan, and sow."

The Garden Club, besides obtaining a wider knowledge of plants, as extremely didactic discussions on such topics as The Vegetation of Florida, which are supplemented by films.

Frumkin (Sec'y.), I. Hauser

SENIOR DRAMATICS

Everybody in Senior Dramatics has an important role in a play. The play has for its chief plot the History of the Drama as well as any rare tricks that go with modern drama. The script calls for only those seriously interested in this art. This cast receives no bouquets, no salaries, but helpful criticism from Miss Edith Hardy.

LAW CLUB

The room is hushed as the members of the Law Club file into "court." An imaginary trial is about to begin! So it happens almost every week, except, of course, when some very good speaker is invited. Besides these, are the inter-club debates, the most important of which is with the Forum. This club is sponsored by Mr. Cameron.

FORUM

What? You indulge in doorstep confabs? Why? Yes, I understand that you just love to argue over situations of the chief countries of the world, and that Hitler, Mussolini, and Stalin of the dictator fame are some juicy morsels of gossip; why waste this learned conversation of doorsteps? Why not join Forum where discussions wax hot and heavy, for the brilliant members hold forth on just such subjects. To prevent the athletic members from upholding their arguments with a minor imitation of the Brown Bomber, there . . . Mr. Walter J. Hipple acts as chief moderator and student-cooler . . . But do not get the idea that this club is a "knock-down and carry-out", it isn't!

SPANISH CLUB

Aye, aye, aye, aye.....

Softly o'er sparkling water floats the strains of beautiful Spanish melodies. They were carried by the very sweet voices of the members of this Spanish Club, and were led by their Mrs. Anita Maloy. Because it excels in songs, reading stories, and games, it interests many Spanish students.

FRENCH CLUB

Si vous ne comprenez pas le Francais, ne viendrez pas ici. (If you do not understand French, do not come to the French club. All of the members speak French exclusively with the aid of petite Miss Dorothy Roberts. However, besides speaking French, plays are produced for fun as well as educational reasons.

ORCHESTRA

The Senior Orchestra, in reality a symphony of students, is led by the baton of "Our Kitty," gay Miss Katharin Finley. To enter this organization of players, instruments, music, and stands, first of all, the little Menuhins obtain a firm foundation in music. The next step—or sixty—carry these masterpieces of skill up—up—up to the orchestra room on the very top floor. Although these trips, taken in the wee small hours of first and second periods every morning, would take the "umph" out of Joe Louis, but that is not true with Musicians. These instrumentalists, having adjusted themselves to early-morning hours, realize soon that a school day without "waking up with a symphony" is definitely lacking in many ways.

After a thorough practice, the orchestra gave an excellent display of its talent for the February Commencement exercises. It also participated in the huge Chicago-Land Music Festival—receiving much inspiration from the mass display of talent.

Besides meeting in the early morning, the H. P. players have also gathered together in the evening for picnics, parties, and tours; thus creating a social atmosphere for discussion of music and friendship with one another. Much good work has been done with such a congenial group of music-minded students who enjoy the intricacies of a symphony concert, and who endeavor to learn the ways and means of perfecting their own selections.

Mr. Shideler, E. Lidd (V. Pres.), I. Levin (Treas.), J. Lieb, A. Solomon

ZOOLOGY CLUB

Welcome one. Welcome all—Gracious hospitality at its finest is found in the Zoology Club. Here, H.P. students who are especially interested in Zoological matters have spent their extra moments with Mr. Claude Shideler as their "zoo" magician. No, he does not pull rabbits out of hats! But he does show them how to prepare specimens (the embalming and taxiderming of many animals). Although this type of exhibition would not appeal to everyone, the members of their club, fascinated with the study of any kind of animal, look, live, and learn!

The "labs" of the Zoology club are somewhat limited in size and quality when compared with the research laboratories of professional scientific research men. To see how much better a professional's lab is to their own the club has gone on planned tours to several well-known laboratories. The trip to the cancer research lab operated by Dr. Maude Slye was enlightening. Also the General Biological Supply Company opened its doors and provided a number of exciting things for these Zoology students. Even the hospital welcomed our young folks. As a result of these tours and from additional discussions carried on at the club meetings, the participants have a greater knowledge of the possibilities in the field of Zoology if they wish to enter it professionally.

SHUTTER BUGS

"Sit still! Now please look at the birdie!" And our Daguerre dabs at his brow which is "wet with honest toil". If the Shutter Bugs didn't learn how to develop pictures, they'd never be great photographers. Pleasurable Miss Veronica Whelan keeps all from making mistakes in the dark room, which is, incidentally where prints are made!

JOURNALISM CLUB

"Stop the presses!" The clackity-clack of typewriters is a correct atmosphere for the cub reporters of the Journalism Club. They must consent to rise gradually and prepare themselves for that coming promotion. This preparation includes the perfection of a writing technique and one can receive much help from Miss Evelyn Slater.

“ For who is there that can compare

This year that statement is truer than ever before. The vast enrollment of three hundred and fifty cadets really makes this year's unit the largest in the regimental history of Hyde Park. The important task; that of policing the school building and its premises. The fine work of these new "M.P.'s" (Military Police)—many would-be student offenders were thwarted in their attempts to permanently borrow bicycles, and break into lockers. The same Hyde Park "Bobbies" also lessen the strenuous work of the Monitors by patrolling the halls at all times. As the R.O.T.C. has the job of guarding at any school entertainment, the usher corps were, of necessity, greatly enlarged. This activity is the largest duty of the cadets.

Crack drill squads were organized from all the companies. A picked platoon conducts daily drills in preparation for spring competition. Places in this group ward his own respective unit. This shows real loyalty!

In the spring of 1939, Sergeant W. J. Brewer, ace military instructor, formed regiments instead of battalions. This had been necessary due to the increased enrollment. The band and two companies comprise a battalion, while the other three companies make up the other.

Ha, Ha, Ha. . . . It's really funny . . . in fact . . . Ha, ha, . . . I can't even stop laughing. . . . Say, if you don't find yourself in one of these mob scenes . . . well . . . imagine that you're there . . . 'cause you probably are . . . but just can't recognize the back of your head. . . . Or if you are on more pages than one . . . don't think you're the tip-top of our school . . . well . . . I'm sure the suspense is too much . . . so just go on and take a peek. . . .

THE REASON WHY

That MOLLOY MADE covers have been used on so many of the nation's leading annuals over a long period of time is testimony to the fact that they really do represent more value.

The Aitchpe, like many other leading annuals started using MOLLOY MADE covers "away back when"—and the MOLLOY trademark on the cover of this 1939 issue is the best evidence of an eminently satisfactory standard of quality and service throughout the years.

In the trophy-lined auditorium of Hyde Park, Loomis Hall, on the evening of January 19, 1939, were presented to the community of Hyde Park High School, the recently rehabilitated Hyde Park High School Building, and the new addition, which was completed in 1938. Important guests of the evening were Mayor Edward J. Kelly, Dr. William H. Johnson, the Superintendent of Schools; Mr. James McCahey, the President of the Board of Education. After the addresses of the formal dedication were given, the entire school participated in a large open house program.

LOVE'S PRIVATE TEAR

"Laugh and call it fate" they say

"Don't weep or shed a tear"

But to me a tear is the sweetest way

Of regretting...

Not forgetting...

Cheer...

'Tis not all cheer of which I speak

But a deep melodic note

Which sounded once will slide and creep

To a sorrowful tone so remote

That a tear clouds the eye and the throat

Your very good friend

Dear Lee,
We haven't seen as much of each other as we'll need to. But we'll be together at the family Reunion.
We always wished
we could be friends
after high school.

Best wishes
lots of luck
